

Announcement of Kiryu Coco's Graduation

Thank you for your continued support of hololive production.

We hereby announce that on Thursday, July 1, 2021, hololive 4th Generation talent Kiryu Coco will be graduating from VTuber group hololive.

We wish to extend our deepest apologies to all the fans and collaborators for this sudden announcement, as well as our heartfelt gratitude and thanks to everyone who supported her activities for the past two years.

We as a company are saddened by her decision to leave, but after much deliberation between both parties, we have decided to honor her wishes.

Please check our official homepage and the press release for information regarding her upcoming graduation event and merchandise, along with her upcoming schedule.
