

International Symposium on “The Vision for the First 100 Months of Development”

Hosted by the Children and Families Agency, Japan

– November 20 is World Children’s Day –

Free
Admission

Who Should Attend

- Government official
- University staff / Researcher
- Early childhood education and care professional
- Child-rearing support professional
- Maternal and child health / Medical professional
- Commissioned welfare volunteer / Commissioned child welfare volunteer
- Community welfare / NPO
- Corporate representatives etc.

Sharing the latest policy trends and scientific findings from Japan and around the world on children's growth in the “First 100 Months”

Date
& time

Nov23 2026 Mon 13:00~18:30
(Japan time)

* The National Conference is scheduled for Nov 22 and 23

Venue

Toshi Center Hotel

2-4-1 Hirakawacho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo

Scan to Register

Register by Nov 13

- In person & online | Japanese-English simultaneous interpretation available
- Separate registration is required for the International Symposium, even if you have registered for the National Conference.

Case Presentations from Japan and Other Countries / Panel Discussion / Networking Session

Yuri Belfali

Head of Division,
Early Childhood and Schools
Directorate for Education and Skills
OECD

Kiyomi Akita

Chair, Child and Families Council,
Children and Families Agency,
Japan

Moderator

Riyo Kadota
Professor,
Seinan Gakuin University

About three additional speakers, including government officials and researchers from other countries, are also scheduled to appear.

National Conference on “The Vision for the First 100 Months of Development” is also scheduled for Nov 22 and 23

Register: <https://jmar-form.jp/100mvision/>

Secretariat:

NTT DATA INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT CONSULTING, Inc
Life Value Creation Unit Mail: hajimeno100@nttdata-strategy.com

Organized by:

Children and Families
Agency, Japan

こどもまんなか

こども家庭庁